Der Shnork

Guest Celebrant, Rev. Fr. Mardiros Chevian

Dear Faithful,

As you probably know, I am at St. Nersess Seminary directing a summer High School Conference of 25 young people over the next 8 days. Here, I will have the opportunity to encourage these young faithful in their walk with Christ and in their discernment as young Christians navigating the perils of this world. This is an extreme honor, privilege and great responsibility. Today's Gospel comforts me knowing that it is the Lord's will that these young people come to Him and that He will safeguard them and grant them eternal life in His blessed care. The work of the seminary is vital for the continuing work of the Lord, and I am humbled to be a part of it albeit in a small way. I am delighted that as St. Nersess has had the primary role in the formation of many of our parishioners, she continues to be the same source of care and inspiration today for the many young people who attend the summer conferences and who ultimately choose to answer a call to attend full-time studies in preparation for professional ministry in the church.

Please join me in welcoming The Rev. Archpriest Fr. Mardiros Chevian, Dean of St. Nersess Seminary. Following the celebration of the Divine Liturgy, during coffee hour, Fr. Mardiros will be making a presentation about the seminary and her work as well as showing a screening of Vision of Grace. Please pray for the work of the seminary as she prepares men for ministry and join me in welcoming Fr. Mardiros to his beloved home parish and let us pray that God keep him and his family under the holy and venerable Cross in Peace.

Prayerfully,

Fr. Shnork Souin

The Holy Gospel of Jesus Christ according to John 6:39-47

“.....and this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, but raise it up at the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that every one who sees the Son and believes in him should have eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.”

The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, “I am the bread which came down from heaven.”

They said, “Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How does he now say, ‘I have come down from heaven’?”

Jesus answered them, “Do not murmur among yourselves. No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him; and I will raise him up at the last day.

It is written in the prophets, ‘And they shall all be taught by God.’ Every one who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me.

Not that any one has seen the Father except him who is from God; he has seen the Father. Truly, truly, I say to you, he who believes has eternal life.

Glory to You, O Lord our God!

Confession and Holy Communion: Those who are preparing to receive Holy Communion may kneel in the center aisle or remain standing at their pew for the group recitation of the confession (p. 48-49). After the absolution please proceed via the central aisle towards the altar in an orderly manner. Two Parish Council members will be present to assist. Please return to your pew via the side aisles.

CHRIST OUR GOD

You crown your saints with triumph and you do the will of all who fear you, looking after your creatures with love and kindness. Hear us from your holy and heavenly realm by the intercession of the Holy Mother of God and by the prayers of all your saints, especially the holy martyrs who gave their lives during the Armenian Genocide for faith and for the homeland, whom we commemorate today. Hear us Lord, and show us your mercy. Forgive, redeem and pardon our sins. Make us worthy thankfully to glorify you with the Father and with the Holy Spirit. Now and always and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

A Special Prayer....

In this desperate time, we pray that our risen Lord will have mercy on the brave Armenians of Artsakh. May he bless all his children who have perished; bring compassionate care to the wounded; and strengthen the living--soldiers and civilians alike--who continue to defend our homeland in the face of these assaults. To all our people, may he grant consolation to our suffering and grief.

With prayers,
Archbishop Khajag Barsamian, Primate

PRAYER FOR HEALING - Armenian Book Of Hours (Sixth Hour)

Remove the pains and heal the wounds of your people, O Lord our God, and grant perfect health to us all through your all-conquering cross, through which you eliminated the weakness of the human race and condemned the enemy of our life and salvation.

You are our life and redemption, beneficent and all-merciful God, and you alone can forgive our sins, remove diseases and sicknesses from us.

You know our needs, O giver of gifts; grant your abundant mercy to all your creatures, each one according to his needs. And through your gifts may we always praise the all-holy Trinity, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, now and forever and ever. Amen
